Equity Market Aug'11 Review

KSE-100 index witnessed a drop of 9.2% MoM from 12,190.37 points on July 29, 2011 to 11,071 points on August 31st 2011. This was mainly due to the global economic concerns and foreign selling. Positive news flow from corporate result season failed to generate upward movement. Foreign portfolio outflow was at US$ 11.6mn (-60% MoM) while volumes declined by 7% MoM to US$ 27mn/day which was because of the weakness in peer markets combined with shorter working hours in Ramadan.

CPI inflation increased to 13.8% YoY in Jul-11 against 13.1% YoY in Jun-11 due to seasonal pre-Ramadan hike in food prices. Exports in Jul-11 softened by 9% MoM to US$2.2bn, but are still up by 28% YoY. Imports also declined by 4.5% MoM to US$3.7bn but were up 14% YoY. As a result trade deficit is up by 3%MoM (down 2%YoY) in July-11.

Current account turned into a deficit of US$75mn in Jul-11, where remittances which is up 39%YoY and restricted trade balance (down 2%YoY) continues to support the current account balance. In July-11 remittances maintained their above US$1bn level and came in at US$1.1bn.

Going forward, strong corporate results and expectation of monetary easing in upcoming policies are factors supporting our outlook for Index recovery. Blue chip stocks, trading at steep discounts make valuations attractive, and are offering an ideal opportunity for investment. With the announcement of Quantitative Easing (QE3) in US expected in Mid-September, we may witness an influx of foreign investment at the local bourse which will provide the much needed impetus to market sentiment.
